“ My dear Victoria and family: please accept my condolences for this horrible loss. It was a great shock to hear that Aunt Bonnie has left us here on earth. She was truly an unforgettable person and very special in her own way.

I have such fond memories of Aunt Bonnie and Aunt Diane from when Melinda/Linda and I would stay with Grandma and Grandpa during our summer vacations. Poor grandpa, he was at home with us while grandma was busy at work at RCA/Bloomington: he had to corral all of us and when he had enough he would take off to the barn or the fields to get some relief and be alone. Bonnie tried to sleep during the day since she worked in the evenings but this poor lady didn’t get much rest when we were all together: it just didn’t happen with all of us around... but she never complained. She would just get up and join the hubbub. Diane was the organizer with all the chores, meals and the fun activities (which was not a small task in rural Bedford). Timmy was the little angel of the group and Victoria; you were the little cutie-pie. Melinda was the other angel of the group and then there was me who was not afraid to try or do anything.

I have so many fond memories of Aunt Bonnie that are so humorous; she was a strong women and did not back down from anyone! I remember her looking at us, shaking her head and smiling... I loved her smile. I hope she gets eternal rest. Love you Bonnie Sue, you are forever in my memories. - Katherine/Kathy Thomas-Meadows

“ I have fond memories of Bonnie. My mother worked with her at Carpenter's and her daughter Victoria remains one of my best friends. Sad to hear.

“ Some of my best memories of Bonnie were when Victoria and I were teenagers and she'd let us use her car. It was a beat up car with seats that wouldn't stay buckled to the floor...it was a death trap but she thought it was funny as hell that my "scrawny little body" could hold onto the steering wheel and drive! She was a hoot sometimes! She could also be a scrapper and you didn't wanna make her mad, luckily I was never on the end of her temper. Victoria I'm so sorry for your loss, love you much! (((hugs)))
