“ I am sorry I cannot make the Cletus Hopkins service today. He was a sweet man who loved the Lord. I always enjoyed speaking with him. He enjoyed the trains and some other things he liked to talk about. I do think I will remember most about Cletus is that he loved going to church services off the nursing home campus and when churches came to sing and preach. I met him through Generations AngelWorx program when he was older and lived at Loogootee Nursing Center and instantly liked him. He was a special man who I know went on to be with Jesus. I think he knew he would too! May you rest in peace with Jesus now Cletus perhaps taking a train ride. May all those friends and relatives who knew Cletus be comforted. Prayers for you all.
