“ I had the pleasure of knowing Josh and his lovely family. He was a very big hearted and caring man. He loves his family and was always there when help was needed. You could say he is a chip off the old block his father Ron Roach. He will be sadly missed by all . RIP and fly high. God bless all .

“ Not often in life do we get to meet folks like Josh. Someone that, through all the years of knowing him, never did he ever stray from being a genuine, good hearted soul. From kindergarten to the day we graduated, he was always the one that would notice those who might be going through something, and always do the selfless acts of kindness by letting them know without sometimes ever having to directly address the trouble at hand that he was there. He seemed to have that gift few have in this world, of speaking volumes with presence more than words. 7-8 years after graduation, life happened as it does.. I was going through my divorce and hadn't really been able to stay in contact much. Josh heard through the grapevine of my situation, and once again reached out through Myspace to offer his moral support. He didnt have to, nor was he doing it to be able to spread the latest town gossip at my expense, what happened, or why it was happening never even came up. He just genuinely cared. That meant a lot to me and I admired that quality more than Im sure I ever let him know, My deepest sympathy I wish to convey to all family and friends. P.S. Im still jealous of that badass Chevelle Laguna you had in high school man. :)

“ Josh's heart & soul live on through his children. Bryanna & Gavin share so much of him in their traits & looks. They just carry so much of him in them. They too have kind & gentle hearts & souls.
