“ My condolences to the family of Katherine Horner. As a child I thought she had such strange name for a lady; my granny (Mae Flynn Phillips) always called her "Cat" (or Kat). She will be missed.

Thanks Connie. She was fine with Mae calling her Kat, but for some reason didn't when Jake did

So sorry for the loss to your family. She was my dad (Paul Flynn's) niece. I don't know how old "Kat" was when she stayed at our house and babysat my brother, David and I while Ed was serving overseas in the Army. She would get letters from Ed and censors would have cut the pages up so much, it was hard to determine what he wrote about. I remember how sad she would be and she would cry when reading those letters.

“ Mary and I want to express our deepest sympathy to the family of Katherine Horner. She was the last of my Aunts on both sides of my family. Aunt Katherine and I had our ups and downs occasionally, but I was fortunate enough to see her in July and we hugged and told each other we love you. She was a wonderful wife, mother, family member and neighbor. Aunt Katherine will be dearly missed by everyone that knew her.
